

Greater One Horned Rhino

Rhino sketch by Harry Clohessy, age: 10 (2020)

Scientific Name:
Rhinoceros unicornis

Estimated number of individuals:
3,300 to 3,600

Habitat:
Tropical grassland,
shrublands, savannah

Top 5 Greater One Horned Rhino Facts

- 🦏 Greater one-horned rhinos are also known as the Indian Rhino.
- 🦏 Males can weigh up to 2,700 kilograms.
- 🦏 Their skin folds look like they are wearing a full suit of armour!
COOL RIGHT!
- 🦏 They are grazers, they primarily eat grasses. However, they will occasionally munch on branches and leaves, along with fruits and aquatic plants.
- 🦏 They have a single black horn that can grow up to 60cm long!