Sleepless Nights

I couldn't sleep the other night,
and so I thought of you.

Running around and playing,
doing the things that rhinos do.

I've seen you run past me,
believing you could fly.

With nothing touching the ground,
you did at least try.

A rhino on the loose, roaming free and wild
Bought me so much joy, I laughed, cried and smiled.

I tracked you and your mum and followed where you went.

In such a long life, that was my most beautiful moment.

The memories relaxed me and I drifted off to sleep.

Thoughts of your beauty, are mine forever to keep.
